For the three years that I have been at Gould, I have gone through the good and the bad and have amazingly come out of it alive and even stronger then when I started. I would like to say thank you to everybody that has had the patience and willingness to help me through all the good and bad times. There are some amazing people in this community that I will never forget and I will carry with me everything they have taught me. I could never have done it without my family and friends. Thank you so much! Jasmin- You are an amazing girl with an amazing spirit. Never loose that sensational and energetic personality that you have!! I just want to thank my family...especially my Uncle Steve and Aunt Sonia for giving me the opportunity to come to this school. Also to my parents for allowing me to come here and for putting up with all my issues and stubbornness for all these years. No matter what yawl may think, you're excellent parents. To my Mom: The cutest mom that I could have ever wished for. You're so special and I wouldn't change you for anything in the world. To my Dad: The person who inspires me and keeps me going and the type of person that I would like to grow up to be. ALEX(MY LUV!!!): Even though in the beginning of sophomore year we couldn't stand each other and almost switched roommates... I'm so0o0o0o0o0o glad that we didn't. We ended up having so much fun when we were roommates. You mean so0o0o0o much to me and your like my best friend and a sister to me. With out you at this school I would not be able to escape sometimes and get back to the real world. even though we fight sometimes...I can't stay mad at you for very long because MY LUV!!!:) and I'm going to miss you SOOOOOO MUCH next year!!!! Senior Year is finally over! By now, I have gotten into college and hopefully into one I wanted to get into. To Mom- Thanks for all the support and encouragement. These last few years have been a rough ride yet you stuck with me until the end. Without you, I would not have even been able to be nearly the person I am today. To Dad- Thanks for all the help since you have been home over the past two years. You pushed me hard in my sports and helped me improve significantly. Also, you did not make me feel pressured about which school I should apply to which helped me make the right choices. To Tyler My best friend forever -We might go to the same college who knows? The 18 years we have spent together have been a blast. Despite all our moves and different schools we have had to attend, you and I have not changed. Can't wait to see what the future will bring. To Minnah- My cute little puppy whose real name is Cinnamon. You played golf with me every day and gave me kisses as soon as I walked through the door. I don't know what I'll do without you. Keep eating and watching T.V. 1989-2006 has been great and I can't wait until 2007. College here I come!

Jacquelyn Reis

Jackie

Mom, you are the most selfless person I have ever met. No matter how down and out you are, you will sacrifice your last bit of energy to a person in need. Dad, you have taught me many things, but above all you taught me about priority and you taught me to reach for the stars. Both of you, Mom and Dad, have taught me to be a strong person. I am confident that I can weather any storm that comes my way because of the two of you. You have given me more than I could ever ask for and words can not describe my love nor my thanks to you. Love you always. Hilary, you truly are my better half. You hold a very special spot in my heart that nothing could ever destroy. We have played, learned, and grown together. And we will continue to grow together in the future. But for now, I love you, play hard, and keep on truckin'! Taylor, you have a very special gift. You are a strong, independent, intelligent, and kind young man. Regardless of where you are or what you do, you will accomplish whatever you set your mind to. The world is yours for the taking. So take it! And remember, I always have your back and I love you. Hana, the day we met literally changed my life forever. You have been the best friend I could ever ask for. You have taught me everything from kindness to adventure to ambition to responsibility. I am eternally grateful and will love you always! Aimey, Hillary, Brittany, Veronica, it's been a great ride and I'm glad that all of you were right there with me. I will miss you tons, but have fun and live it up. SDSG: Y'all are the goofiest, nicest, and best people to be surrounded by. Love you and see you soon! Alford family, you have been a great second family to me. I truly appreciate everything you have done for me and taught me. Love you!

After 18 years of life, it would be impossible for me to thank everyone who has influenced my life in half a page, let alone an entire novel. So, to anyone and everyone who has been a part of my life, I thank you from the bottom of my heart...

DREAM BIG- If there ever were a time to dare, To make a difference, to embark on something Worth doing, it is now. Not for any grand cause, necessarily, but for something that tugs at your heart, something thats your aspiration.

Something that is your dream. You owe it to yourself to make your days here count. Have fun...dig deep...stretch...Dream big Know though that things worth doing seldom come easy There will be good days and there will be bad days. There will be times when you want to turn around, pack it up and call it quits. Those times tell yourself that you are pushing yourself.

That you are not afraid to learn by trying and working. Persist...Believe in the incredible power of the human mind. Of doing something that makes a difference. Of working hard. Of laughing and hoping. Of lasting friends. The start of something new brings the hope of something great. Anything is possible. There is only one you. And you will pass this way only once. A wise individual once noted that one could tell how wonderful their life has been through the friends that they have made in it. A friend can be anyone. You can meet them at any place, any time, and under any circumstance. The difference between a casual friend and a friend that can change your life is that there is no difference...all friends change lives. A friend who is also a mother, a sister, and a confidant is a friend who you are forever bonded to. Friends who are family, who understand you when there are no words left to explain, are friends who love you more than you love yourself. A friend who will hold you when you cry, will give more than take, and find joy in everything, is a friend who can change your smile. A friend who can open you up to the rest of the world without judging others is a friend who can change your mind. A friend who spins with you and laughs when she falls is a friend who will never let the cold world get to your heart. A friend who is just as mismatched with the rest of the world as you are, is a friend who can make you feel accepted. A friend that feels your words like her emotions will always listen. A friend who shares a home with you, is the friend who teaches you to share your heart. A friend that is a teacher, an advisor, a mentor, and a father can comfort you under any circumstance. A friend who understands your "orange lampshades" will always guide you. A friend who you have grown up and grown old with is a friend who can change your heart. Friends are here to enjoy life with us. They teach us how to care. You do as much for them as they do for you. Once can tell how wonderful their life has been through the friends they have made in it.

~IF~

If you can keep your head when all about you Are losing theirs and blaming it on you, If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you But make allowance for their doubting too,
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated, don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise:

If you can dream--and not make dreams your master,
If you can think--and not make thoughts your aim;
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster And treat those two impostors just the same;
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools, Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools:

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it all on one turn of pitch-and-toss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings
And never breath a word about your loss;
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue, Or walk with kings--nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you;
If all men count with you, but none too much,
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run, Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And--which is more--you'll be a Man, my son!

Our eyes will be watching you, our hands will be helping you, our hearts will be praying for you.....Love Dad and Marm, Kianna,

My Dearest Aimey
 You are my sunshine. From the day you were born every room you have entered you've brightened with your radiant smile. Every person you have encountered you have warmed their soul and touched their heart with your humor and sincerity.
 Every place you have ever been you have left a sparkle. The day you arrived you held your head high and have never let it fall. You have always known who you are and what you believe in and have always stayed true to yourself and your beliefs never swaying to pressure.
 Your talents and attributes are many; music, drama, writing, leadership, compassion, humor, sincerity, honesty and kindness. Many believe you were born to be on stage. I believe that you were born to do and be whatever you want. I am so proud of you for everything that you have accomplished and for everything I know you will accomplish, for I know you will succeed in everything you do in life.
 You go girl!!

I love you forever
 I like you for always,
 As long as I'm living my baby you'll be Love, Mom

"Our Favorite Things"

*Raindrops on roses, and whiskers on kittens, Stone walls, and waterfalls, and duct tape race mittens, Black velvet boxes are hiding rings....
These are a few of our favorite things.*

*Babies in jamies, and a chicken that dashes, Snowflakes that fall on our nose and eyelashes, Silvery winters that melt into springs....
These are a few of our favorite things.*

*When the crash comes,
When no cash comes,
When the diagnosis is unclear....
We simply remember our favorite things,
And smile away our tears.*

Dear Lauren Marie,

We are all so very proud of the amazing person that you are! We knew moments after your birth that you are an "old soul" with more knowledge and depth than most. You are truly a gift to the world....an extraordinary gift. We all love you so much.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Quinn, Joshua, Scosha, Maverick, and Miracle

Farewell, for Now

Here we are together,
Do you believe this weather?
This is one of our last shared times-
We have to make it shine.
There is chaos and anxiety building -
The next few days will go by quiet fast
With so much to do,
The end is so near:
We can all see it on the horizon so clear,
But we're not there yet so,
Hold steady
Don't jump the gun
For our day is coming A new day with a new sun.

It's been a winding road.
Years under our toes,- Sharp turn just ahead-Endless possibilities Soon to be placed before us all;
I hope you're all holding on.

But before we all take off Slow down the pace,
And remember everyone's face Reflect on the good and on the bad Cherish what our class has had.

So say I:
Enjoy this night
With the company we have We should all remember These will be some of our fondest days That we will all have

In the week to come Work on your farewells but Never say goodbye
For goodbye means forever,
And it will only be a while.
